I. MEETING CALLED TO ORDER AT 2:00PM by Alli.

II. INTRODUCTIONS

III. AARP CHALLENGE GRANT UPDATE

a. Thank you to everyone who participated in the clean-up date and/or attended the ribbon cutting ceremony was expressed. The space looks so fresh and bright.

b. Alli shared photos of the finished project and the ribbon cutting.

c. Becky shared that we have spent almost all of the grant money ($3470 of the $3500 received) and we used local contractors and businesses. The partnership with JCPS has gone very well. AARP has shared our successful project.

d. The final report is due December 31st. Becky's goal is to have it completed by December 1st. Sophia will assist with uploading the documents and submitting.

IV. FALL CLEAN UP

a. Our group needs to complete 1 more clean-up this year to stay on track with our goals. Looking at previous locations of events and clean ups, Southwest Louisville would be an ideal choice for our next clean up.
b. Some ideas thrown out were Riverport Landing/Family Scholar House campus, Taylor Blvd and Southern Parkway, Sun Valley Park.
c. UofL students joined the workgroup meeting to participate in the upcoming cleanup as part of a community action project. Signup details may be shared, also longs as all participants fill out signup & waiver.
d. Alli will reach out to CW Bast and CW Hawkins regarding some of these areas.
e. Tentative date for the clean-up has been set for Monday, November 16th between 2-4pm.

V. SHARED EVENTS

a. OADC shoe giveaway for seniors in partnership with Samaritan Feet and Republic Airways on December 10th at the Edison Center (registration is required), Center for Accessible Living Equipment re use event on November 5th, Lunch and Learn at the Episcopal Church Home on November 12th and the AARP Living MY Best Life Free one-day conference on November 14 at the Holiday Inn Louisville East.
b. Congratulations to OE workgroup member Kristi King, her students and the OE workgroup for the acceptance of the case study with Metropolitan University Journal.

VI. NEXT MEETING
