

Domain	Zone	Theme	Question No.	Importance	Feasibility	Strategy
Housing
Housing	Green	Maintenance	10	4.08	3.68	Coordinate volunteer groups to help with maintenance of homes where seniors live.
Housing	Green	Modifications	14	4.24	3.79	Develop certification for builders to have the skill to do aging in place modifications.
Housing	Red	Affordability	64	3.89	2.92	Create mixed income areas with options for seniors to live in these areas.
Housing	Red	Maintenance	50	3.78	2.89	Create a Village within Louisville – similar to DC where city is divided into quarters and people pay a nominal fee to get the maintenance support they need with approved contractors.
Housing	Red	Multi-Generational	56	3.89	3.19	Create multi-generational communities where people of different generations can support each other (eg. childcare, shopping)
Housing	Red	Multi-Generational	49	3.65	3.00	Create co-housing options for seniors and young adults living together.
Housing	Red	Multi-Generational	9	3.32	3.11	Create programs where college students live in current long term care facilities (economic benefits for students; social benefits for older adults)
Housing	Red	Self-sufficient and accessible senior living	27	3.79	2.79	Create co-housing communities with communal spaces where duties are shared among neighbors.
Housing	Yellow	Affordability	21	4.21	2.82	Develop cheaper condo options for seniors.
Housing	Yellow	Maintenance	30	4.00	3.68	Develop relationships with high school groups that can help with home maintenance as part of volunteer hours program (Beta club, Girls Scouts, Boys Scouts).
Housing	Yellow	Modifications	26	4.51	3.27	Work with City to require all new buildings to follow universal design principles.
Housing	Yellow	Modifications	16	3.79	3.61	Work with builder supply companies (Lowe's Home Depot) to have a section on home modifications.
Housing	Yellow	Self-sufficient and accessible senior living	32	4.42	3.11	Create housing communities for seniors that are close to grocery stores and public transportation with adequate sidewalks and streetlights.