

Age Friendly Louisville

Social Participation, Respect, and Inclusion Work Group/Domain

AGENDA

April 14, 2020 (Tuesday)

Conference Call/Zoom <https://zoom.us/j/314219762>

- I. Introductions (Name, Organization, and New Life Changing Event with the “Coronavirus”)
- II. Review of March 2020 meeting (Overview by Rita Morrow)
- III. Coronavirus & Social Inclusion---How to Handle/Respond as well as Good Sources in dealing with the Coronavirus
- IV. Intergenerational Project---Latest News and Additional Updates (KIPDA helping with merging Maps and information with JCPS Schools with Senior Housing)
- V. Update on Elementary Schools working with Meals on Wheels making “Spring & Derby Cards” & “Stay Healthy”
- VI. Plans for Outreach to Summer Day Camps and Other Programs with Card Making and Other Inter-Generational
- VII. New Business and Special Announcements
- VIII. Next Meeting Location (Site) and Plan the Agenda

Age Friendly Louisville

Social Participation, Respect, and Inclusion Work Group/Domain

March 10, 2020 at Shawnee Library Branch

Introductions: The meeting took place at Shawnee Library Branch at 3912 W. Broadway, Louisville, KY 40211 and started at 2:10 PM. The total attendance was 8 persons (dramatical low for this domain). All attendees shared their name, what organization or group they were with and a "Spring Season" goal they have.

Review of February 2020 Meeting and Highlights: Rita Morrow, one of three facilitators, shared a brief overview of what took place at the last meeting which took place at Metro United Way (MUW) and had 20 attendees. The group continued to make progress with the next focus area of this domain with inter-generation. Also, a good number of the Elder Abuse Bookmarks were given out to attendees so that they could be placed in and around the community. While two of the planned guest speakers/presenters were suppose to come, they have come for March 2020 meeting.

Speaker #1: Tammy Nofsinger

Innovation Works* - Eco Crowd

- Helps support the development of a sustainable city. Healthy and mindful lifestyle.
- Eco Friendly Products
- Sustainable City Program, Eco innovation
 - Online & Inperson
- Dialogue groups - meeting once a month at the Thrive Center (a pilot), looking to target seniors and teens for dialogue.
 - Best Business practice for sustainability.
- Eco innovation, designathon - high school students working together to build a prototype around an idea brainstormed from the dialogues. May 29th, Story Louisville, E. Main Street.
- New Product Development Teams for OLder Adults to get involved with. (Lean Green Product Development Team)

Speaker #2: Christy Cobban

Treyton Oak Towers @ 3rd & Oak

- Pairs with Enghart Elementary.
- Intergenerational support that goes both ways
- Residents providing gifts/services for kids

- Kids providing services/entertainment
- Manual students began knitting group with TOT
- Come once a week
- Discussing including different kinds of art
- West End School (All Boys School)
- Decorated Christmas ornaments & music was played by the students and students served the residents, reading with residents, and taught the boys to play shuffleboard.
- Mezeek Middle comes to play music
- Invited to hold an SPRI Workgroup meeting at TOT

Overview of Dialogue from previous meetings and new developments:

- Reflected on the Meals on Wheels cards from February (Valentines Day)
- Intergenerational Projects (Brief discussion of those that are happening and going on):
 - Art Project with Treyton Oak Towers
 - Intergenerational Project Proposal and Revision (proposal was briefly discussed at prior meeting and brought up again but Trude Scharff was not present again)
 - Schools have been asked to participate in making Welcome Spring and Derby Cards.
 - Cochran - cards need to be picked up
 - Guttermuth Elementary - cards collected!
 - Crumbs Lane Elementary - Derby Cards

- Kennedy Promised 100 Kentucky Derby Cards
- FRYSC Director - going to individual schools is the way to go about creating these relationships
- May - Older Americans Month
- September - Intergeneration Month

Elder Abuse Bookmark Distribution - 1000 more prints to come with Thank you to AARP

- It should be noted that many of these will be on the table at the Optimal Aging Conference

New Business: It was discussed to see if FYRSC representative from JCPS may be able to come as well as Chris Clements working closer with KIPDA (especially Dia Erpenbeck) on getting Maps and Information merged together for this Domain and the next steps. Also next meeting spots for the group included United Crescent Hill Ministries, Fern Creek Library, Bon Aire Library, and other areas in both the Crescent Hill and Fern Creek areas and eventually in Shively too. Chris Clements will work on this and let everyone know a place/site.

The meeting finished at 3:45 PM.

